The internet is an amazing resource and learning tool for kids, but the presence of online predators and other dangers means it must be used safely. Lt. Mark O'Neill of the St. Charles County Cyber Crime Task Force and Commander of the Missouri Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force (MOICAC) will discuss the roles and day-to-day work of these organizations and provide tips to keep youth safe online. Attendees will participate in an actual cyber crime case study. Det. Brigid Oldani of the St. Charles County Police Department and Cyber Crime Task Force will join Lt. O'Neill for the presentation.
